

Town clean up to be by precincts

The Town of Wilmington - Chamber of Commerce clean up, this year will be scheduled, as it was last year, by precincts.

The operation, a year ago, was an outstanding success, and Chamber of Commerce officials and the town selectmen have agreed that the same method should be used in 1975 - that of concentrating the trucks and other equipment, in the various precincts.

Rubbish, put by the curbside, will be picked up by town trucks. In Precinct 1 this will be done on April 22. Precinct 2 will be April 23. Precinct 3 will be April 24. Precinct 4 will be April 25. Precinct 5 will be April 28. Precinct 6 will be April 29.

It will not be necessary for householders to call the Highway Department, as in former years. Just adhere to the Precinct schedule. Rubbish put by the curbside on those days will be picked up.

The pickup will be limited to household goods only. No leaves, no pine needles, branches, stumps or lumber will be picked up.

The highway trucks will pick up items placed by the curb consisting of household goods, such as stoves, refrigerators, furniture and other items too bulky for householders to dispose of by themselves.

Junk cars will be picked up free of charge. Simply call 667-9235, 658-4558 or 658-8120. Cares to be removed must be on the property of the owner, in the yard or easily accessible.

Home owners with questions are invited to call the Highway Department at 658-4481.

A new Town Government takes over tomorrow

The Junior Division of the Wilmington Town Government is scheduled to be sworn in, at the town hall, between 8:30 a.m. and 9 a.m. tomorrow.

There will be a new board of selectmen, a new school committee, a new town manager, a new superintendent of schools, a new police chief and a new conservation commission.

All will be high school seniors, and they were elected (or appointed) to their offices as a part of Student Government Week, an annual program sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Wilmington. Esther Russell, town clerk is expected to swear in about forty youngsters.

The week just about finished has been a busy one for some of the Student Government Group. They have been attending meetings, and, what may be of some importance, they have learned that selectmen and members of the planning board and other officials do have problems, and just don't meet for the fun of it.

Many activities

Members of the Student Recreation Commission, for instance, will be taking a trip to Concord and Burlington Friday with Recreation Director Ron Swasey. They will observe recreation programs in those two towns, and Mr. Swasey hopes to show how the Town of Burlington has divided an old high school into two parts - one for school administration and one for recreation. The important part, Mr. Swasey says, is that there can be definite activities for young people, without the necessity of paying overtime to town

NO POLICE CHIEF'S CAR: Monday, in the Wilmington Town Hall, the Student Selectmen took over, and heard Gay Rinker propose the town buy a car for the police chief - long, black, and without any badge or device.

The Student Selectmen went along, proposed $6,000 for the car, then cut the price to $5500. They then voted unanimously and vigorously, not to buy the car.

Gay's face, at the end of the table, tells the tale.

employees, because of union contracts.

The Burlington Recreation Department runs half of the old school, without intricate scheduling through other town departments and employees.

Young people who will be making the trip with Mr. Swasey include Chuck Wood and Leslie Webber, co-directors; and Michele Giroux, Lusann Nicholas, Julie Brooks, Tom Richards and Paula Kavanaugh. They will leave for Concord directly after being sworn in by the town clerk.

The student conservation commission members are to take a trip with Mitzi Wolff to visit the Parker River Wild Life Sanctuary. Included in this group are Tom Pelletier, Elaine Baldwin, Marcia Olson and Lorraine Spada.

Mrs. Barbara Cogan is taking the young people interested in the Bi-Centennial for a tour of the State Bi-Centennial office and Faneuil Hall.

The library committee will visit the Boston Public Library, with Judy Weinberg as a group leader. She is a member of the staff of the Wilmington Library, and a member of the LWV.

The selectmen and town manager are to take a trip to the Government Center in Boston, with Selectman and Mrs. James Miceli. They will visit the office of Senator Brook, and of Senator

Maciez Lipski has a new friend

MACIEZ LIPSKI HAS A NEW FRIEND: The shy Polish lad looks up at Ron Swasey, Wilmington recreational director. Those eggs in the basket are genuine Easter Eggs.

Maciez Lipski is six years old. He speaks Polish fluently, but his English could stand some improvement. It is what one could expect from a person who has been in the United States for only three months.

Just before Christmas Maciez, who was a Polish orphan, arrived at his new home at 41 Lawrence Street. Witold and Mary Lipski welcomed him as a son, to take the place of a son lost in an accident some months ago. Maciez was in a new world, different languages, different customs. Quite a place for a six year old.

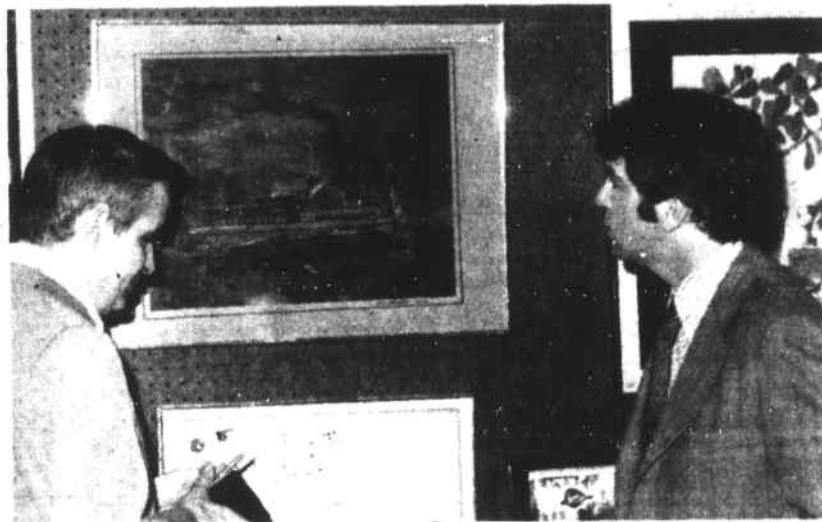

After the Christmas vacation Maciez started to attend school. One of the first person he met was Joan Bachman, School Nurse. Joan was able to make things a little comfortable, for she too speaks Polish. Maciez was put into kindergarten, until he has acquired some use of the English language.

Last Sunday Maciez had an excursion, up to the place where the Easter Rabbit hides eggs, for good little girls and boys. It was quite a trip, over 500 children there, all excited about Easter Eggs. It was almost too much for a shy boy.

Then he met Ron Swasey. Mr. Swasey is the recreational director for Wilmington. It is his job to be certain that the Easter Rabbit gets all those eggs out, for the Easter Egg Hunt.

Ron Swasey introduced Maciez to the Easter Egg Hunt. Ron was just the person to do so - and now Maciez has a new friend - the man who tells the Easter Rabbit where to hide his eggs.

WILL TSONGAS TAKE A STEAMBOAT TO WASHINGTON?: When Paul Tsongas, (right) the newly elected Congressman from Lowell, visited Wilmington High School on Tuesday, a painting of a steamboat caught his eye. He asked Superintendent of Schools Walter Pierce if the artist, Helen Brewster, a high school senior, would be willing to sell him the painting for his office in Washington. The painting is part of the traveling art exhibit comprising work of students from kindergarten through high school.

New books at Wilmington Library

In Celebration of Wine and Life by Richard Lamb is a charming account of the origins, customs and traditions of wine making and drinking. It will add to the wine drinking pleasure of connoisseurs and beginners alike, and contains excellent illustrations and practical information.

The Future of Motherhood by Jessie Bernard begins by saying no form of motherhood could be worse than that existing in the United States. Yet the book is not against motherhood; it is for women. It explains options, argues for self determination, and attempts to forecast the psychological, political and social status of women in the next generation.

The Patton Papers, 1940-45 by Martin Blumenson is not a military history or a standard biography; it gives Patton's own view as he fights through the African landings, storms into Sicily, leads the Third Army's surge across Europe, and occupies Germany. This second volume completes the living portrait of America's most flamboyant general.

Jayne Mansfield and the American Fifties by Martha Saxton is a very readable biography which attempts to explain the phenomenon that was Jayne Mansfield and her relationship to the times. "Jayne caught fifties sex like a malignant fever and it burned her out with sixties complications."

Death and Eastern Thought edited by Frederick Holck traces the history and development of Eastern thought about death from the Vedic Period (c. 1500 B.C.) through the current thought of Gandhi, Tagore and others. Major attention is given to Indian philosophy, but sections on Chinese and Japanese are also included.

A Month of Sundays by John Updike concerns a period of enforced rest imposed on a clergyman for the seduction of his organist. Half the day is spent resting, half in confessional writing in a wonderfully overwrought style.

A Scandalous Woman and other Stories by Edna O'Brien contains five stories full of the joy and heartbreak of being a woman. Each story deals with the need to come to terms with all that life has in store.

The Promise of Joy by Allen Drury presents an atomic death struggle between China and Russia which imperils the rest of mankind. The novel deals with what position America should take and asks if there is a promise of joy for nations and individuals in a world apparently bent on self-destruction.

The Painted Tent by Victor Canning is a novel about a sixteen year old boy and a peregrine falcon who attempt to find freedom in a world constantly growing smaller. Born in captivity, they each in their own way learn to fly and taste freedom.

Habits of Command by Joseph Rosner is an uncannily relevant novel that keeps a reader entertained and mentally alert. It deals with a sanctuary in Idaho for three generals and others

Mike's Corner Variety, at the corner of Shawsheen Avenue and Hopkins Street may or may not have a Common Victualer's license. The subject was roundly discussed by the Selectmen, Monday night.

Mike had his attorney with him, Mark Litchenstein, and Mr. Litchenstein agreed with the selectmen that it would perhaps be best to put off a decision until such a time as the Town Counsel can be present, which will presumably be at the next meeting on April 4.

Mr. Castellano was operating before the Density bylaw was voted by the town. The space for which he was licensed was five by fifteen feet. The area in which he was working was eight by eighteen feet, and the Wilmington Board of Health refused last year to concur on a license.

It is a complicated question.

Chapter 774 talk tonight

There is to be a discussion on Chapter 774, now a popular subject in some circles in Wilmington because of the proposed Candlewood Village. The discussion will be by, and presumably for government officials and will be held at the Andover Sheraton, from 4 to 6 p.m.

One of those to be present will be Morrice Kourman, who is the chairman of the Massachusetts Housing Appeal Committee.

Rocks in the old pond

When Marcia Road was built, about a dozen years ago, rocks were disposed of by putting them in a pond at the head of the road. That was the pond which figured in the Harnden Massacre, back in July 1706.

A Harnden girl, believed dead, was thrown into the pond. She revived and lived a full life.

Selectman Jimmy Banda, perhaps not knowing of Susan Harnden's revival to life, reported to his fellow selectmen Monday night that there are rocks, now coming up through the road, from that old pond.

LETTER

To All Tewksbury Voters:
Dear Voter:

I am writing this open letter to urge that you vote in Saturday's election. Many aspects of Massachusetts State Government reflect the "home rule" concept. The effect of this concept has been to place many of the most important decisions affecting the town in the hands of local officials.

The town officers you elect on April 5 will have to face the same difficult decisions on spending, education, services and taxation that now confront state government. Consequently, I believe it is most important to elect candidates who best represent the qualities of ability, dedication, leadership and personal integrity which these critical times demand for the future of our town.

Hoping to see you at the polls on Saturday.

Very truly yours,
James J. Gaffney, III
State Representative

CAR CORNER

by Bob Bagnulo and Joe Casey

Spark plugs have to be changed in some cars as early as 3,000 miles, and some may last for 20,000 miles.

City driving takes much more out of cars and out of spark plugs since the stop and go seems to create more wear and tear. The recommended time for changing them is ten thousand miles or six months, whichever comes first.

However, a city driven car may need changes more often.

At WILMINGTON FORD, 275 Main St., Rt. 38, 658-6800 you get much more than just a new car; you get professional, personal attention to your automotive needs. Our service and parts department is one of the area's most modern and complete to assure you of the finest service; our extensive parts inventory insures you of minimum delay in making your car's repairs. Hours 9-10 Mon-Fri; 8-6 Sat; service, 7:30-9 Mon-Fri; 7:30-5 Sat.

Helpful Hint

Spark plug insulators must be clean and unbroken.

Pair locked up after lock-in

It was a bad night for toilets in Wilmington, last Wednesday.

Two Lowell youths were forcibly removed from a toilet of a Boston and Maine train at Wilmington Center by Wilmington Police, but only with the aid of firemen, who had to break down the door. The pair had locked themselves in the ladies room of the train to escape police, who were summoned by the train crew.

after the pair became disorderly enroute from Boston.

After their arrest, the two were locked in cells in the Wilmington police station, where one of the youths became violent. In his rampage, he destroyed the toilet in the cell, in addition to other objects.

Both were charged with disorderly conduct and destruction of property.

Local swimmers score in championship meet

Wilmington was well represented at the recent Massachusetts Bay YMCA District Girls' Swimming Championships held at Brockton High School. The local girls, wearing the Kelly green and gold of the Wakefield YMCA swim team all attained the finals in the meet for area YMCA swim teams.

Pat Conant, of 25 Arlene Ave., a first year swimmer, stroked to a fifth place medal in the eight and under 100 yard individual medley, lopping thirteen seconds of her previous best. Patty was named to the New England A.A.U. All-Star team last summer in the 50 meter butterfly after only four months of competitive swimming.

Mary McNaughton, of 15 Marie Drive, a very pleasant surprise in her first year of swimming, finished sixth in the 100 yard free style for 10 and under, and anchored the medley relay team to a fine bronze medal performance turning her finest effort of the year.

Laurel Harding of 13 Chapman

Ave., anchored the 200 yard free style relay team in its finest performance to date while turning in her best personal effort in the demanding 11 and 12 year old competition to give the team a fifth place medal for the event.

Beth Conant, of 25 Arlene Ave., stroked to a three medal day, taking medals in every event she entered. Beth finished fourth in the 200 yard individual medley, the test of all-around swimming ability, with her finest effort in the event to date while also grabbing a fifth place medal in the 50 yard butterfly and swimming the second position on the fifth place 200 free style relay team.

The girls' performance has qualified them for the New England YMCA Swimming Championships to be held at Springfield College.

The Wakefield YMCA swim team is offering an introduction to competitive swimming clinic for interested newcomers to the sport of swimming. Interested persons should call the YMCA at 245-4660.

Then John Cushing tied it at 2 - 2 with just three seconds left in the second. Cushing was assisted by Chuck McNeil.

Squirt B II's: Shut out Medford 6 - 0 by the superb goaltending of Richie Carbone and Peter Gentile, both goalies turned away many hard Medford shots in the whitewash victory.

The forward line of Sean Neill, Mark Johnson and Richie McHugh accounted for four of the B II's six goals. Johnsk made two and McHugh made two. The solid checking line of Ray Taylor, Lane Fraser and hard-hitting Craig Richards rocked Medford's puck carriers constantly with good, tough body checks. Brian MacLellan and his wings Billy Barrett and Mike Kidd kept constant offensive pressure on Medford only to be stopped by the hard-working opponent goalie, but by pure determination the line accounted for the final goal: Mike Kidd's. The other goal was scored by defenseman Gerry O'Reilly on a strong wrist shot from the offensive corner. The defensive group of O'Reilly, Eddie Olson, Sten Larson, Lance Sullivan and Ron Cahill kept the Medford attack of balance with good solid body checks and clever stick work. Sten Larson kept the puck working in the offensive zone constantly. Assisting on goals were MacLellan, Barrett and Neill two and Johnson and McHugh one.

Pee Wee BI (17-4-7): The Pee Wee BI's got off to a quick start last Tuesday against Cambridge by scoring twice in the first 2:11 of period one. The first goal of the game was a tip in by Rick Zambardi off a Doug Wiberg slap shot. Frank DeVita also assisted.

As the clock was running out Billy Wallace was tripped on a breakaway and given a penalty

Recs, Tacks advance in tourney

The Distaff Invitational girls ice hockey tourney got underway on Monday night with a pair of first round contests in the double elimination affair. Tewksbury belted Wilmington, 5 - 0 behind the stout goaltending of Patty Barlow and Natick topped Haverhill, 4 - 1.

The Tacks exploded for three second period goals to put the Recs into the losers' bracket. Diana Doyle's power play goal at 3:38 put the Tewksbury girls in front 1 - 0. Nancy Bratton picked up the lone assist. Less than a minute later at 4:12 Joan Buckley made it 2 - 0 with Doreen Furdeck and Bratton assisting. Chris MacMahon upped the Tacks' lead at 6:44 with Cindy Buckley garnering the assist.

Late in the final frame Tewksbury put the game out of sight scoring two more goals, the first of which came off the stick of Joan Buckley at 7:39 and Cindy Buckley at 10:39. The Tacks held a wide 19 - 11 shots on net advantage.

In Tuesday night's action, the Recs came out flying and eliminated Haverhill, while Nashua edged the Tacks in overtime and Chelmsford nipped Natick. Lisa Pellerin's goal at 1:08 of the opening stanza put the Wilmington girls on the right track. Cheryl Cushing and Joan Welch picked up helpers on the score. Sharon Landry tipped home a Lori McNabb rebound at 5:21 to give the Recs a 2 - 0 lead which they maintained throughout. Right wing Kim Wandell also assisted on the second Wilmington goal. Haverhill closed the gap to 2 - 1 at 7:37 when Jody Sullivan beat goalie Cindy Laquidara from five feet out.

Late in the first stanza Lori McNabb upped the Recs' lead to 3 - 1 scoring at 10:54 with Cheryl Cushing assisting. Haverhill closed the gap to one once again when Nancy Lkein scored an unassisted marker at 8:41 of the middle frame. However, the RECs were not to be denied and at 5:10 of the last period Lisa Pellerin deflected a Cheryl Cushing pass past a startled Haverhill goalie and the Wilmington girls were still alive in the tourney, while the Haverhill sextet was eliminated.

Tewksbury overcame a 2 - 1 third period deficit to know their game with Nashua on the strength of Cindy Buckley's power play marker at 9:23 of the final period to force the game into overtime. The Tacks got on the scoreboard first when Diana Doyle beat Leafetts netminder Dawna Ethier at 5:48. Cathy MacPherson and Christine McMahon assisted on the score.

Backed up by the superb goaltending of Patty Barlow the Tacks stayed in front until 6:08 of the middle frame when Terry Strack beat the diminutive Tewksbury goalie. Only 31 seconds later Nashua went ahead and stayed that way until Buckley tied the score at 2 - 2.

In the extra sudden death session, the Leafettes carried the play to the Tacks' end and it payed off when Anna Nita scored from close in at 4:17 to push the Tewksbury girls into the losers' bracket with a 1 - 1 slate.

The tourney will continue tonight at the Forum when the RECs face-off against the Natick Eagles at 7 o'clock with the losing sextet being eliminated. The Tewksbury girls will return to action Saturday afternoon at 3:40 when they square off against the loser of the Nashua/Chelmsford game, which will take place Saturday morning.

Adult Hockey League

Beavers, 4-Bulldogs, 2

Paul DeCoux and Tim Walsh had staked the Bulldogs to a 2 - 1 lead early in the third but the Beavers came back strong to tie the score on Dave York's goal and then wrapped it up on Doug Fish's second and third goals of the night.

Benevento Jets, 11-Blues, 5

Single goals by Don Currier and Jim Sughrue enabled the Blues to move into a tie with the Jets midway through the third period. Then in almost unbelievable fashion, the Jets broke open the deadlock with 4:28 remaining in the game on Snooky Lynch's third goal of the night and before the final buzzer had sounded, fired in five additional goals to win going away. Peter Tighe and Snooky Lynch had four points each on three goals and an assist.

Bulldogs, 5-Blues, 5

Paul Trickett's goal with :26 seconds remaining in the game earned the Blues a tie with the Bulldogs. George Doumani's two goals had given the Bulldogs an early third period lead, but the Blues kept battling back. Phil Macdonald had a pair of goals for the Blues.

Big W, 6-Beavers, 3

The Big W held onto their slim lead for first place as "Mittens" Brennon scored his first hat trick (since his promotion from the Silver Lake League) to lead the offensive attack. Ed Hill also fired in a pair of goals for the Big W.

the playoff schedule will be determined on the outcome of the Big W - Jets clash on Sunday, April 6 at 10:20 p.m. A. If the Big W win, or tie, they will be the overall champs of the league. B. If the Jets win, or tie, the final makeup game of the season will be played on Wednesday, April 9. C. If the Jets win the makeup game, they will begin a best of three series with the Big W for the league title.

Cadette Conference

Over 60 Girl Scouts from Wilmington and Tewksbury recently attended a "trash can snoop" at the Wilmington Congregational Church.

Workshops included the following: Planting. Hugh Wibert; silk screening. Mrs. Barbara Devita; patchwork. Mrs. Betty Squires; decoupage. Mrs. Jean Willis; macrame. Mrs. Ruth Filipowicz and Cathy; trash craft. Mrs. Evelyn Kaminski; songs. senior Scouts Denise O'Donoghue and Kathy O'Keefe; slimnastics. Mrs. Cathy Nealon.

A gab session with Doctor Callahan of the Wilmington School Department provided some interesting sidelights for the leaders.

Each girl attended several workshops and learned a new craft or gained a new interest.

The theme of the conference was "Trash-Can" in that the workshops were interesting and varied, but involved little expense.

Firefighter speaks on first aid

Tewksbury Camp Fire leaders held their monthly meeting this week. Following a brief business meeting, a very interesting and informative talk and demonstration on first aid procedures was presented by Bruce Reed, a firefighter attached to the Tewksbury Ambulance Unit.

Bruce Reed graduated from Tewksbury Memorial High School in 1965, and attended Mount Wachusett Community College in Gardner. He served as a Naval Hospital Corpsman including a tour in Vietnam. He joined the fire department in June, 1971, and has been attached to the ambulance unit since that time. He has recently completed an eighty-one hour Emergency Medical Technician Course.

Assisting Mr. Reed in demonstrating splinting and bandaging techniques were Firefighters David Levy and Allan Hancock, who are stationed at the South Tewksbury Fire Station.

Mr. Reed began his remarks by explaining the functions of the Tewksbury Ambulance Service, as part of the fire department. He also spoke about the tot finder program, and showed the decals that are available for a home with young children or invalids in residence. There are also stickers to attach to the telephone, so that the fire department number is right at hand in case of emergency. Among the topics discussed by the firefighters were accidents, bleeding, burns, mouth-to-mouth breathing, choking and broken bones and fractures.

A very active question and answer period followed, and the leaders became very involved in this important subject.

Kimball, formerly of Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth, his heirs, devisees or legal representatives; Mary P. Kimball, formerly of said Lowell, her heirs, devisees or legal representatives:

GREETING: Whereas a complaint has been begun against you in our Land Court, by Thomas V. Sullivan and Marilyn J. Sullivan, both of Wilmington, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth.

WE COMMAND YOU, if you intend to make any defense, that on the first Monday of July next, which Monday is July seventh the return day of this subpoena, or within such further time as the law allows, you do cause your written appearance to be entered and your written answer or other lawful pleading to be filed in the office of the recorder of said court at Boston in the County of Suffolk, and further that you defend against said suit according to law, if you intend to make any defense and that you do and receive what the court shall order, adjudge and decree therein.

Hereof fail not, at your peril, as otherwise said suit may be adjudged, and orders and decrees entered therein, in your absence.

The plaintiffs represent that they are the owners of a certain parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, located in Wilmington, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, being Lots 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 Olive Street as shown on a plan of land in Wilmington known as "The Mengis Plan," recorded with the Middlesex North District Registry of Deeds, Book of Plans 5A, Plan 42, and a deed from Colony Home Builders, Inc., dated December 14, 1971, recorded with said Registry of Deeds, in Book 1991, Page 292; and the plaintiffs further represent that the aforesaid lots were sold on July 22, 1912, by the Town of Wilmington for non-payment of taxes to Henry L. Andrews by deed dated August 1, 1912, recorded on August 14, 1912, in the said Registry of Deeds, in Book 493, Page 306; the plaintiffs further represent that more than two years have elapsed from the date of said sale and no redemption has been made and that the defendants are the only persons who may have any possible right of redemption; and that they have made a due and diligent search for said defendants and have been unable to locate them; and the plaintiffs further represent that they and their predecessors in title have held open, notorious, exclusive and continuous possession of the said premises for a period of over sixty years, adverse to any possible interests of the defendants constituting a cloud on said title; and the plaintiffs pray that the court find and determine that they hold their title to said premises free from all claims of the defendants, having acquired title by adverse possession.

And it appearing to the Court upon the suggestion of the plaintiffs that the whereabouts of the defendants are unknown and they cannot actually be served with process, it is ORDERED that notice be given by publishing a copy of this order once a week for three successive weeks in the Wilmington Town Crier, a newspaper published in said Wilmington, the last publication to be two months at least before the said first Monday of July next.

Yoga, elections featured at Newcomer's meeting

A Yoga demonstration was held at the last Newcomer's Club meeting, and members participated and learned some basics of this art. Annual elections were held for the 1975-76 officers. Many local merchants and businesses are donating items to be auctioned off in order to raise funds for this charity project. One local family has contributed a hand-made, wood-shingled wishing well to be raffled off, and raffle tickets can be purchased from club members or at the auction.

Jaycee sale aids mental health

The Tewksbury Jaycees will sponsor the fifth "Help Light the Way Week" to help the mentally handicapped of the community and the state.

To raise money, the Jaycees will sell apple butter at $1 per jar. They will be at the Star Market, Tewksbury and at the DeMoulas Supermarkets in Tewksbury and Wilmington on Thursday and Friday evenings, April 3 and 4, and all day Saturday, April 5.

"A goal of 1000 jars of apple butter has been set for Tewksbury-Wilmington and I am quite confident that the citizens of our towns won't let the mentally handicapped of Massachusetts down," said Dave Pileggi, project chairman.

Last year the Tewksbury Jaycees sold 1000 jars at this time and they are fully confident of reaching their goal and even exceeding it this year.

Jaycees across the state are working together to support Lincoln Hill Camp, a six-week educational and recreational camping program for mentally handicapped children.

This non-profit program, administered by the Massachusetts Jaycees, is custom-designed for children who range in retardation from mild to severe, and carrying a variety of diagnostic labels, such as mental retardation, autism, or learning disabled.

LETTER

Dear Larz:

Bantam A's (19-5-2): On Monday March 24, Wilmington was defeated by Wakefield 7-4 in what was the poorest officiated game played by the team to date.

Perhaps there should be a game misconduct penalty given to Linemen or referees who display bad conduct in these games as well as to the players.

The young players in these games are at an instructional age and are looking for guidance and assistance from coaches and officials.

The conduct of one of the officials in this so called game was so gross that at one point he pulled a hanky from his pocket and offered it to one of the alternate captains in answer to one of the boy's questions.

This official harassed the boys throughout the entire game and with 3:20 left to play the game was stopped for no apparent reason, no penalties were assessed to either team at the time. The only reason that can be concluded from this action is that the officials were not able to control themselves and therefore were not able to perform a job for which they are well paid. The only losers, in more ways than one, unfortunately were the boys.

Wakefield scored the first two goals, but Bill Blaisdell got Wilmington on the board at 5:08 of the first period with the assist to Paul McMahon. Wakefield closed the period with two unanswered goals.

In the second frame it was Mike Carlin who scored, assisted by Tom Gracia only to have Wakefield score two more goals. Mike Carlin once more scored with assists to Dave Ballou and Tom Gracia bringin the score to within three.

In the abbreviated final frame Wilmington pulled to within two as Bill Blaisdell scored with assists to Mike Carlin and Tom Gracia. Wakefield scored at 5:51 and at 3:20 the game was abruptly ended. The next contest will be played April 3 at 6:55.

There is an opportunity for people, moms and dads, brothers and sisters, aunts and uncles, of high school students, to become members and to participate in some of the active work of the Boosters Association.

Recs lose 3-1 finish in cellar Winter social ends, begins tennis season

The Nashua Leafettes captured their second straight MVGHL title last Saturday when they defeated the Wilmington Recs, 3-1.

Nashua went into their affair with the Recs needing a win to cop the league title and the Wilmington skaters pushed the Leafettes to the limit before succumbing 3-1. Cheryl Cushing put the Recs on the board at 5:12 of the opening frame banging home her sixth seasonal marker amidst a goal mouth scramble. Joan Welch and Lisa Pellerin assisted in the score. The lead held up until 7:48 of the stanza when Nashua scored a power play goal.

entering the final period the outcome was still in doubt as REcs netminder Cathy Briston turned back all of the Leafettes efforts. However, a poor Wilmington clearing pass resulted in a goal for Nashua at 1:55 when a Leafette defenseman intercepted the pass and drove a 40 footer between Miss Bristol's pads.

Midway into the stanza the defending champs put the game out of reach with their third goal of the game and with it the league title remains in Nashua. Along with Miss Bristol, the entire defensive corps of Debra Reinhart, Diane Robinson, Janet Zambarnardi and Karen Surrrette played superbly as did all of the forwards as the Recs put forth their finest effort of the season.

At the conclusion of the final game the championship team awards were presented along with the all-star selections, which included Joan Welch and Cheryl Cushing of Wilmington.

High School juniors to attend college fair

A College Fair is something that is of interest to high school students, and their parents, and one of the larger ones in area is to be held Friday, at the Hynes Auditorium, in Boston.

There will be representatives from approximately 240 colleges and universities present. They are prepared to answer questions and offer recommendations about educational opportunities.

From Wilmington High School a group of juniors and parents will leave, at 9:30 a.m. to attend that College Fair. There will be two members of the high school guidance department.

Should parents or other students care to join the guidance department on their April 4 trip the road is open. Call 658-9011.

Should other parents or students be interested in attending by themselves, the fair will be open this afternoon from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. and on Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Some of the representatives will be from colleges as far away as Texas, Ohio and Florida.

This is but one of the many resources available in Wilmington High School, according to principal George Eisenberg. The Wilmington Guidance Office is supplied with reference books, catalogues, and in-depth materials to assist in organizing questions and plans, for two to four year colleges, private or public questions.

It was an Easter Egg Hunt to exceed all others, as far as Wilmington is concerned. There were probably 500 youngsters at the Town Park last Saturday afternoon, divided into the Five and Below Group, and the Five to Eight Group.

No one over eight years old was supposed to participate, but probably there were some.

Peter Rabbit was on the job early, and brought 1200 eggs. Even then there were said to be a couple of youngsters who just didn't find any eggs.

Cars were parked along Main Street down to the AVCO parking lot, and in it.
